

Alejandro José Jaramillo Arango Acting Executive Vice President of New Businesses, Innovation and Technology

With 32 years as part of EPM, he is recognized as a close, respectful and transparent person with extensive knowledge and experience in the public utilities sector. His leadership, commitment and managerial clarity have allowed forming highly productive teams with a sense of belonging and love for their work.

He has held various management positions, including: Head of the Gas Finance Department, Head of the Energy Distribution Finance Area, Deputy Manager of New Energy Businesses, Deputy Director of New International Businesses and Vice President of Business Growth until January 2, 2024.

During his career, he has led the main acquisitions of the Group's subsidiaries both nationally and internationally, turning EPM into a multi-Latin company.

He has participated in several Boards of Directors, representing EPM in its subsidiaries located in Chile, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Panama and Colombia.

