

Gabriel Jaime Velásquez Restrepo

Acting Vice President of Legal Affairs and Acting General Secretary

Attorney specialized in administrative law, with specialization studies in procedural law from Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana and nearly thirty years of experience in public utilities and public government.

He has remained close to university education during his professional life, supporting different undergraduate and graduate programs in various universities in the city, giving lectures, conferences and writing some academic articles related to his professional activity.

He joined EPM in 1999, after spending nearly four years at Empresas Varias de Medellín, where he worked as an attorney, Head of the Legal Office and general secretary. He began at EPM as Head of the Legal Unit of Processes and Claims, and continued as assistant secretary and manager of the Business Group's Legal Management.

