

William Giraldo Jiménez

Vice Presidency of Energy Generation Projects

Mr. Giraldo is the Vice President of Projects of Energy Generation. Previously, he was the Head of the Projects Department. He began his career with EPM in 1985 as a Project Engineer. Since 1996, he has held managerial positions related to power generation projects such as Nechí, Central Termoeléctrica La Sierra, La Herradura, Porce III and Ituango. He has a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Universidad de Antioquia, followed by a specialization in Financial Management from Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana and a master's degree in Thermal Power from Cranfield University.

