

Court asks to correct formal issues to continue with EPM demand in case of the Ituango hydroelectric project

EPM informs public opinion:

As is common in processes of this nature, the Administrative Court of Antioquia asked EPM, in its capacity as plaintiff in the claim against the contractors of the Ituango hydroelectric project, to correct errors of form, which can be corrected, in the lawsuit filed last 12 from January.

The Organization has 10 business days, counted from Friday, March 12, 2021, to correct the points of form referred to by the Administrative Court of Antioquia.
