

RELEVANT INFORMATION

EPM wants to inform that neither through Proposed Ordinance 300 submitted by the Medellín Municipal Administration nor through any other means, has there been any intended, proposed or purported action leading to modify the ownership structure of the organization.

As reiterated by the Medellín City Mayor and Chairman of the Board of Directors of EPM "That can never fit in the mind of Mayor Anibal Gaviria or in the mind of the City Council or of EPM's CEO. This company has to continue being a State company and 100% owned by the City Administration and the citizens.
