

Relevant Information

EPM's CEO, Jorge Londoño De la Cuesta, presented this Tuesday, December 11, a balance of the achievements and challenges that the company faced in 2018: the contingency in the Ituango hydroelectric project and the advances for its recovery, the entry into operation of the first waste-water treatment lines of the Aguas Claras Plant and the financial results, which are expected to be higher than in 2017.

We attach a link to the video: <https://bit.ly/2UB4lva>

