

In relation to the CRW 167467 contracting process, whose purpose is the construction of the final civil works of the Ituango hydroelectric project (generation units 5 to 8), EPM is allowed to inform the public:

On Wednesday, February 22, 2023, the bidder Consorcio Ituango PC-SC, formed by the companies Powerchina International Group Limited and Schrader Camargo SAS responded to the analysis and conclusions report carried out by EPM and within the contractual times delivered complementary information to accredit the required experience.

As of the date, EPM will begin the process of reviewing and analyzing the information provided.

Medellín, Thursday, February 23, 2023