

The connection process between EPM and the elected district administration has begun

The connection process between EPM and the team of the elected district administration began today, during which the work agenda and methodology will be defined. The CEO of EPM, Jorge Andrés Carrillo Cardoso, will also present a management report for the four-year period, focusing on business results, corporate results, financial indicators and future projection.

The connection committee of the elected district administration is composed of Nicolás Ríos Correa, Orlando Uribe Villa, Simón Molina, Jorge Londoño De la Cuesta, José Manuel Restrepo, John Maya Salazar, Elena Rico Villegas, Jaime Andrés Eusse, Luis Botero, Verónica De Vivero, Luis Guillermo Vélez, Juan Carlos López and Mónica Pinzón.

From EPM, the connection committee is made up of Jorge Carrillo Cardoso, CEO of EPM; Santiago Ochoa Posada, executive vice president of Business Management; Martha Durán Ortiz, executive vice president of Finance and Investments; Cristina Toro Restrepo, general secretary; Jhonatan Villada Palacio, vice president of Legal Affairs; and María Marulanda López, head of Corporate Governance.

During the meeting, how the process will continue in the coming days will be defined to continue delving into the different issues of the present and future of EPM.

