

Attachment

Relevant Information

Starting May 16, Ricardo José Arango Restrepo will be the new Vice President of Human Development and Organizational Capacities of EPM. EPM's Board of Directors appointed Economist Ricardo José Arango Restrepo as new Vice President of Human Development and Organizational Capacities to replace Ana María Restrepo Botero, who has voluntarily resigned to the position she has held since November 15, 2012.

Mr. Arango Restrepo is an Economist from Universidad Javeriana and has specializations in Transnational Businesses and Financial Management from Universidad Externado de Colombia and Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana, respectively.

He has over 20 years of work experience, seven of them in EPM, where he has occupied the positions of Business Units Manager of EPM Group, Director of Institutional Services, Director of External Relations and Commercial Manager. He was also Manager of the Urban World Forum, Director of Human Talent in Industrias Haceb and Antioquia Regional Manager of Porvenir S. A.