Relevant Information

Regarding the information published on the website of the newspaper “La República” titled, “Fondo Canadiense apoyará a EPM con una inversión de US$250 millones en Colombia” (Canadian Fund will provide EPM with US$250 million of investment in Colombia), which refers to an investment that the institutional investor CDPQ (Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec [Québec Deposit and Investment Fund]) will make, EPM states that CDPQ is an institutional investor that agreed to provide US$250 million of Class B credit with class A/B structuring in a deal signed on December 29 between EPM and IDB Invest for US$1,000 million.

Also on December 29, 2017, EPM published the relevant information regarding the agreement to this credit and in the annex of that publication are listed the financing entities that participated in the agreement, a list which includes CDPQ.
